COLLEZIONE PRIMAVERA / ESTATE 2019

SALUTI DALL'ITALIA

Un'estate al mare, lontana dai problemi del quotidiano.

In Italia le vacanze estive sono sacre. Le città si desertificano, le aziende chiudono, il paese dimentica tutti i suoi problemi per un intero mese. Sempre. A qualunque costo.

Da "Le smanie per la villeggiatura" di Goldoni, scritta nel 1761, alle foto di Massimo Vitali delle bianche spiagge di Rosignano Solvay, che sono in realtà una discarica chimica, il tema delle vacanze italiane ha corso lungo tutta la cultura letteraria e visiva del Bel Paese. In questa bolla che dura un mese e per la quale si accumulano soldi durante tutto l'anno, le priorità cambiano, il mondo diventa un posto facile, bello, divertente e la vita agiata, senza responsabilità e senza lavoro, diventa realtà. Ecco le contraddizioni di un paese conservatore e moralista, ma solo la domenica.

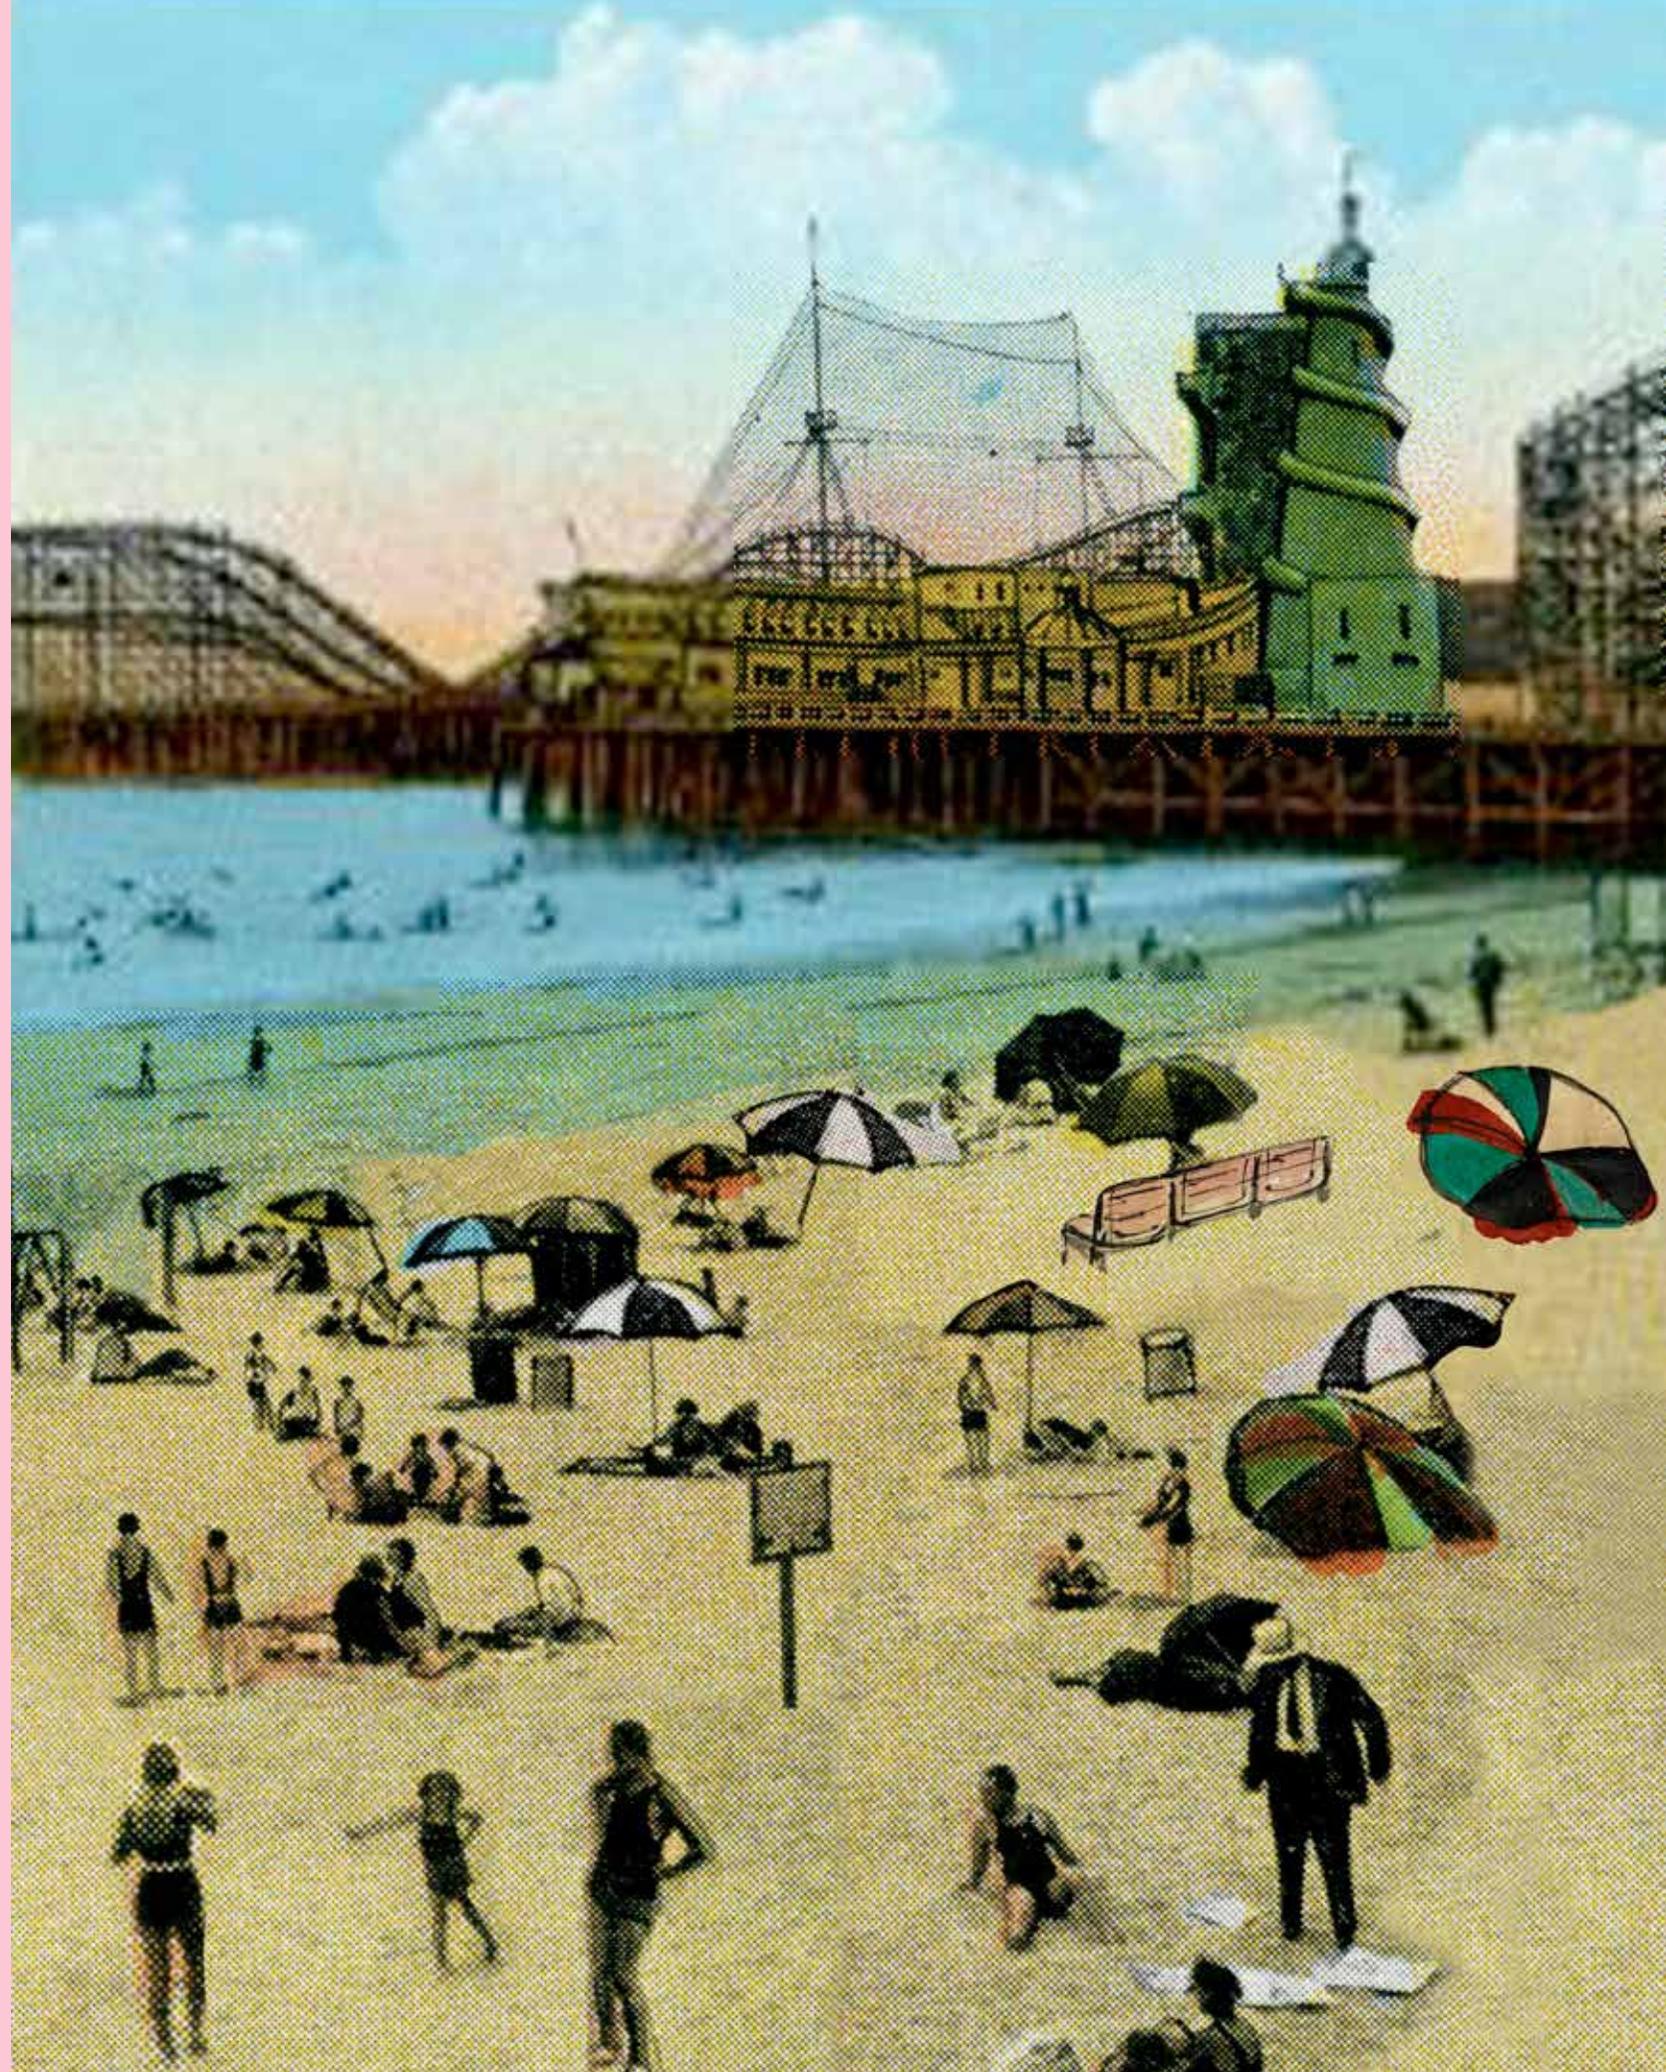

Marco Rambaldi per la collezione Primavera Estate 2019 parte da vecchie cartoline degli anni '60 e '70 spedite da chissà dove a chissà chi per ricostruire un immaginario di finta leggerezza in cui la spensieratezza estiva fa dimenticare la passione politica, l'impegno, la realtà appunto.

Un immaginario fatto di vecchie carte da parati slabbrate, di corpi ammassati al sole come formiche, di piccoli fiorellini tanto ingenui quanto falsi che si scontra con la grafica dei manifesti dei partiti politici e ricostruisce un immaginario tanto leggero quanto ossessivo.

L'obiettivo è scavare sotto la pelle screpolata dall'abbronzatura riminese per ritrovare la coscienza politica perduta, l'impegno personale e sociale rileggendo una lezione che storicamente non è lontana da noi e che si sta ripetendo, ogni giorno, davanti ai nostri occhi.

Nella collezione si susseguono storie contraddittorie: delicati uncineti, stampe propagandistiche, vecchie carte da parati stampate su crêpe e twill, cuori intarsiati nella maglieria, paesaggi marinari riprodotti in jacquard su maglie e in stampa su denim. Il senso dell'agiata borghese si mescola con un'idea di streetwear contemporaneo: abiti di crêpe a fiori e overcoat cerati di cotone check, seta trasparente a righe sottilissime e k-way in nylon, popeline colorato e pesi giacca da drapperia maschile.

Un universo difforme ma coerente che racconta una storia di critica all'oggi ma descrive anche uno scenario di accoglienza, di comprensione, di superamento dei limiti. Sempre più necessario.

SPRING / SUMMER 2019 COLLECTION

GREETINGS FROM ITALY

A summer by the sea, far from the problems of everyday life.

In Italy summer holidays are sacred. Cities become deserted, companies close, the country forgets all its problems for a whole month. Always. At any cost.

From “The craving for the holiday” of Goldoni, written in 1761, to the photos of Massimo Vitali of the white beaches of Rosignano Solvay, which are actually a chemical dump, the theme of Italian holidays ran throughout the literary and visual culture of Bel Paese. In this bubble that lasts a month and for which money is accumulated throughout the year, priorities change, the world becomes an easy, beautiful, fun place and the well-being, without responsibility and without work, becomes reality. Here are the contradictions of a conservative and moralistic country, but only on Sundays.

Marco Rambaldi for the Spring Summer 2019 collection starts from old postcards of the ‘60s and’ 70s sent from who knows where to who knows who to reconstruct an imaginary fake lightness in which the carefree summer makes you forget the political passion, commitment, reality precisely.

An imaginary made up of old jagged wallpapers, bodies sunk in the sun like ants, little flowers as naive as they are fakes that clash with the graphics of the posters of political parties and reconstruct an imaginary that is as light as it is obsessive.

The goal is to dig under the chapped skin of tan from Rimini to regain lost political consciousness, personal and social commitment by re-reading a lesson that is historically not far from us and that is being repeated every day before our eyes.

In the collection there are contradictory stories: delicate crochet hooks, propaganda prints, old wallpapers printed on crepe and twill, hearts inlaid in knitwear, seascapes reproduced in jacquard on sweaters and in denim print. The sense of bourgeois agility mingles with an idea of contemporary streetwear: floral crêpe dresses and overcoat waxed check cotton, transparent silk with very thin stripes and k-way in nylon, colored popeline and men’s drape jacket weights.

A different but coherent universe that tells a story of criticism today but also describes a scenario of acceptance, understanding, overcoming limits. More and more necessary.

MARCHIO

Il brand Marco Rambaldi nasce nel 2014, in una fase storica della moda in cui le parole contemporaneo ed eleganza appaiono come due concetti che con il tempo sembrano aver perso di significato.

Nella visione creativa di Marco si scontrano il mondo della borghesia italiana degli anni Settanta nei suoi codici espressivi quotidiani, ripetitivi, reazionari e un'estetica radicalmente giovane, emotiva, trasversale, nuova.

Due generazioni eternamente a confronto che collidono nei loro precetti primari di conservazione e di eversione: un tavolo da caffè in cui si mescolano copie di storiche riviste di moda patinate come "Sguardo italiano" o "Linea Italiana" con fanzine punk dall'aspetto ruvido, non finito, disperato.

Nella narrativa di Marco Rambaldi c'è allo stesso tempo un senso di annichilimento e un necessario bisogno di sopravvivenza, di sintesi degli opposti, di amore per il presente.

Il Made in Italy è finalmente riletto nel suo contesto culturale, non usato come sinonimo di qualità. È la matrice della forza creativa, non il suo obiettivo.

Perché solo attraverso il recupero di ciò che è innegabilmente vecchio ma che ci appartiene riusciremo a capire da dove veniamo e qual è il mondo che vogliamo costruire.

Le collezioni Marco Rambaldi sono autoprodotte, sono distribuite dallo showroom Garage di Marina Guidi & Co a Milano e sono veicolate da Next Agency a Milano.

BRAND

Marco Rambaldi's brand was born in 2014 at a time when in the fashion world words like contemporary and elegant seemed to have lost their meaning.

Marco's creative vision represents the clash of two worlds: the 70's Italian bourgeoisie with its everyday repetitive, reactionary codes and a radically young, emotional, transversal, new aesthetic.

Two generations always challenging each other which collide in their precepts of conservatism and insurgency, like a coffee table where historic, glossy Italian fashion magazines like "Sguardo Italiano" or "Linea Italiana" mix with rough, desperate and unfinished looking punk fanzines.

In Marco's storytelling there is both a sense of annihilation (desolation) and a need for survival, a summary of the opposites and love for the present time.

Made in Italy finally arises in its cultural context, not just as a synonymous for quality. It is the matrix of its creative strength, not its goal.

Because only through recovering what is definitely old, but belongs to us, we will be able to understand where we come from and which kind of world we want to build.

Marco Rambaldi's collections are self-produced, they are distributed by Garage Showroom of Marina Guidi & Co in Milan and they are conveyed by Next Agency in Milan.
